In connection with its 19th Annual Institutional Investor Conference on May 23-24, 2018, B. Riley FBR is once again partnering with the Sugar Ray Leonard Foundation to host the 9th Annual, "Big Fighters, Big Cause" Charity Boxing Night which benefits the Sugar Ray Leonard Foundation and its support of type 1 and type 2 diabetes research and awareness to help children lead healthier lives through diet and exercise.

B. Riley FBR conference attendees will join legendary boxing champion, Sugar Ray Leonard, and other celebrity guests for this exclusive event emceed by actor and comedian, Bill Bellamy, at the Loews Santa Monica Beach Hotel, with the evening to include a professional boxing card, live and silent auctions, food, and entertainment.

"Commissions for Charity Day is consistent with our commitment to provide our clients and employees the platform they need to accomplish their goals, as well as provide Sugar Ray Leonard's foundation the opportunity to close in on theirs," said Bryant Riley, Chairman and CEO of B. Riley Financial. "We're proud to support this foundation's mission and look forward to a great event."

"B. Riley FBR continues to be a valuable friend and partner in our fight against diabetes," said Sugar Ray Leonard. "Over the past nine years, their dedicated support to our foundation has enabled us to make meaningful change and continue to contribute to the life-changing research and programs this foundation supports. We are grateful for their generosity and partnership."
